Golf and Other Games May Be Played as Usual, as Anti-Loafing Bill Doesn't Mean That No Time Shall Be Spent in Exercise and Amusements.

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World).

THIS passing of the Anti-Loafing Bill doesn't mean that there shall be no time spent in healthful exercise or amusements. Golf and other games can be played as usual.

To interpret the Legislature's action as directed against amusements would be a catastrophe. People do enough worrying over war conditions without cutting out their relaxations to have more time to mope around.

President Wilson has come out strongly in favor of continuing athletes many times. He objected to having athletics dropped in the colleges, and only a few days ago he jumped all over an idea to cut out athletic meets on Memorial Day and put the first Saturday sport day of the year into a day for thoughts, meditation and prayer. The less thoughtful meditation there is in this country just now the better. Let us have optimism and energy, and a good drive for healthy outdoor sports instead. An hour a day of optimism will stand hard, cheerful training can do more to keep the Nation's fighting strength up to the top notch than all the gloomy determination that can be packed into a year's time.

The French people are the most cheerful people in the world and the greatest fighters.

The German soldier has no sports, knows nothing of sport or entertainment or relaxation behind the lines. And when he is cornered he throws up his hands and cries "Kamerad."

It's quite different with the French and English and Americans. They are all trained to take a sporting attitude.

FRED FULTON has been given a chance to redeem himself. His refusal to appear in the show held in San Francisco last Friday night to get funds to equip the soldier camps with athletic goods knocked out Fred's popularity in the Far West.

Nate Jack Dempsey has wired James Croftoff, offering to fight Fulton four rounds in the next Training Camp Activities Fund show in San Francisco. Croftoff has sent a man to see Fulton, who is with a theatrical troupe in San Fran.

BOXING is coming back to its old home in the Garden. On the evening of May 24 there will be held in the famous arena of old-time championship fights patriotic programme of star bouts between the strongest boxers now in the game. The monster meet will be under the auspices of William Fox's Red Cross Team of Theatrical and Motion Picture Interests to conduct big show, at which there'll be real bouts between Sport's stars in Drive for $100,000,000.

Nate Jack Dempsey has wired James Croftoff, offering to fight Fulton four rounds in the next Training Camp Activities Fund show in San Francisco. Croftoff has sent a man to see Fulton, who is with a theatrical troupe in San Fran.

Fighters should have a chance of heat and sweat. Dempsey offers. He should be willing to do at least as much as Dempsey does. Fulton would risk little in a four-round bout. He is much bigger than Dempsey and a much better boxer. Dempsey is a fighting fighter. His record is with the Milkmen. What he has is real "class." But he isn't likely to put Fulton in serious danger in a four-round bout.

Before he made the match with Willard, which has now fallen through, Fulton occasionally did a little boxing for the soldiers. He was sent to the Knickerbocker meeting, William Fox required the whereabouts of Billy Gibson, manager of Benny Leonard.

"We're boxers," piped a voice from behind a hankie.

"Get him on the long-distance phone," asked the Red Cross Captain, and Gibson was heard from within twenty minutes.

In the course of a short time Ed Smith, the noted boxing authority of Chicago, was also at the Western representative for the Red Cross, and he wired his intentions of sending East a formidable squad of ring lumberjacks for the special occasion.

To the champion boxer Johnny Aragon, Jimmie Flynn, and Charlie Gould, and made great fun. The committee presented Leonard with a beautiful watch fob.

Leonard leaves for Los Angeles to fill other roles for the war cause. People in California are anxious to help Leonard in his efforts to hit the Kaisers on the chin.
